OUR SCHOOLS.

OCTOBER 23, 1894.

Editor of the BEE:

I happened in the police court this morning and there were two young lads on trial for disorderly assembly and obstructing the sidewalk, one of whom testified in his own behalf. He was a youth of about fifteen years of age and he testified that he was a pupil in the public schools in the fifth grade; that Miss Spencer was his teacher. He used such strange language that the court interrupted him and asked if he went to school and in what grade he was and who was his teacher. I was somewhat surprised, and I should not say I was surprised for the reason, I know from contact and observation that the pupils are pushed through the lower grades so poorly schooled in the most important branches of a common school education. I will venture the suggestion that an examination of the pupils in the high school will develop the fact how sadly they are deficient in the fundamental branches of a common school education.

Don't you think, Mr. Editor, that if more time and more of the money appropriated was devoted to the education of our children in good clean English and less to German, French and Latin would be more helpful and practical to these children in life? But few, if any, will ever have the occasion to use the languages and the most they get in the course they take is surface. Master our mother tongue first is the practical idea.

Thorough knowledge of arithmetic before they make an assault upon algebra. A good and substantial knowledge of history, especially the formation of this Government. Then, as a round up, some effort made to teach the children some little of geography, and how to speak, write, and talk correctly. More time and money devoted to these subjects would perhaps better prepare these children "who will be our future men and women" for the active duties of life.

By the way, Mr. Editor, could you advise the public why, if any reason exist, books, stationery, and all implements necessary to the course of studies of the pupils in the public schools should not be furnished all of the pupils in the public schools free of cost from the first grade to the normal school? The burden is lightened but little by simply providing that necessary books for pupils shall only be in the lower grades, the weight of the burden in the matter of books, etc., by reason of cost of the same is in the higher grades and the high and normal schools, the cost for the machinery a pupil must have when he or she enters the portals of the high school and normal school is the weight of the burden upon its parents. Why should we have only books free of cost in the lower grades? Is there any right in morals or call for this condition? If the Government should supply books and utensils for any part of the schools they should supply the same for the whole, from the first grade to the normal and high schools. Under present dispensation, calculating the cost of books (which are so frequently changed), it would be less expensive to send your child to a private school and pay its tuition.

While on this school subject I might inquire, have you even thought about you give a reason why so many members of certain families are employed in lucrative positions in the public schools to the exclusion of no representative of others who are not so high in the social scale. We might enumerate a number of families (and perhaps we will in future) who are so well provided for at the public crib (in the matter of the school dispensation), and we must conclude that the excess of brains and ability are centered there because the trustees in charge are able and honorable men, and they would not make such nominations and appointments but for the fact of fitness.

I have read some little about the Dockery law, Mr. Editor, which deals with the subject of nepotism to some slight degree. Does it apply to the public schools; if so, what a fertile field the committee a pointed under said law has before them.

I was told by a friend a day or so ago that there was a young woman, a graduate of the normal school of the District, the sole dependent of quite a large family who are wrecked by disease, who sought vainly for some employment in the public schools (she being one of the common people) and yet there was a vacancy and it was filled by some young woman from abroad. Is this right, Mr. Editor?

VERITAS.

CHARLES R. DOUGLASS.

THE INSTIGATOR OF THE COLOR LINE IN THIS CITY—THE SECRET OF ASTWOOD'S ATTACK—WHY ROBERT PURVIS WAS ATTACKED—WHAT LED TO A LIBEL SUIT—THE PART FRED. DOUGLASS PLAYED AND HIS COWARDICE DURING THE FIGHT.

Charles R. Douglass is the son of Fred. Douglass, sr., sometimes called the Sage of Anacostia. Mr. Douglass had a son named Fred, who is since died. Charles was sent to Santo Domingo as United States consul, but on account of his accounts being mixed up and unexplainable he was removed and Hon. H. C. C. Astwood succeeded him. This is the secret of the fight of the house of Douglass against Astwood, and on account of the relationship between Mr. Fred. Douglass and the Harrison administration Douglass succeeded in defeating Astwood for Santo Domingo after his commission had been made out and signed. This same Charles R. Douglass, without any cause or provocation, filed charges against Astwood after he had been nominated for Calais, France. Douglass' pretext was that Astwood had talked about him, when in fact Astwood had never said a word against him.

This same Douglass said to the editor of the BEE that Astwood was a foreigner, which was one of the reasons he gave for his opposition to Astwood. Astwood's mistake is that he attacked Mr. Cleveland who had been so kind to him and praised the men who endeavored to disgrace and humiliate him.

Charles R. Douglass, like a few other colored men in this city, has always raised the color line; that is, he has abused the bright colored people because he imagined that they were opposed to him.

On one occasion he got invited because he was not invited to one of Dr. Purvis' swelled reception.

Not that Purvis was prejudiced to color, but because he did not want the company of Charles R. Douglass.

On another occasion he made an attack on a very pretty, bright colored lady in the Census Office because she would not speak to him, and he subsequently charged her with associating with white men.

The attack on

HON. ROBERT PURVIS was instigated by the Douglasses at the time the editor of this paper was in Douglass' office. The old man came to the editor while he was at his desk and asked him if he read the democratic speech of Robert Purvis. He was told no. He then read the speech. It was at the time Mr. Purvis took an independent stand in politics against the white republicans because they would not appoint colored men on the police force in Philadelphia, Pa. Mr. Purvis denounced the republican mayors because he refused to recognize the negro. For this and other reasons Mr. Douglass instigated the attack.

The second attack led to the libel suit, and in this Mr. Douglass played the coward when he refused to give to District Attorney Corkhill the libelous letter written by Dr. Purvis against the editor of this paper. It was then that the editor's friend, lawyer James H. Smith, was consulted and an adjustment of the differences was made between Mr. Purvis and the editor of this paper. No set of men have been more vindictive and treacherous toward the representatives of the race than the Douglasses. When they found out that they could no longer hold the BEE in line for the purpose of making their fights, the editor is charged by this same Charles R. Douglass with having abused his father and other representative colored men.

Mr. W. Allison Sweeney, who took part in the movement with Purvis, was attacked editorially through the columns of the BEE by Frederick Douglass, jr. The attack was written in the Recorder's Office and revised by the old man.

In the next issue the reason of the attack on George T. Downing will be explained and the part Charles R. Douglass took. This will be rich and racy.

J. T. Hanson, the discharged steward of the Freedmen's Hospital, has been abusing Dr. C. B. Purvis at the Interior Department and threatens to show up some alleged crookedness at the hospital. He also has filed charges against Dr. Shadd at the Interior Department. It will be remembered that Hanson was discharged for cause.

FUN IN THE WOODS.

THE OX WAS BARBACUED.

Behind the blooded trotters of the genial Bob Keys last week, Editors E. E. Cooper of the "American" and Chase of the BEE, drove through Hyattsville thence to Bladensburg to the barbecue given by Mr. Smith Wormley at his new place of business. On arriving there the first person who caught the eye of the BEE was the happy Bill Brooker who was conducting a drill but who had just left the side of the barbecued ox where he had been doing the honors.

Bob Keys and Bill Brooker always do things handsomely and never fail to make their company happy and genial. Messrs. Drew, Webster, Quander and others added greatly to the pleasure of the press.

ANOTHER TRAIN ROBBERY.

Thieves Fire Two Hundred Shots and Loot the Express Car.

Wagoner, I. T., Oct. 22.—The Kansas City and Memphis express, which left here at 9:30 Saturday night, was wrecked and robbed by ten of the Cook gang of white and half-breed desperadoes at Corra, a blind siding five miles south of here. The train was run into a string of box cars. The robbers forced Express Messenger Ford to open the doors by perforating the side of the car with bullets. The two robbers in the express car secured all the money in the local safe, but didn't get into the through safe. Jack Maher, advance agent for Maher's Minstrels, was dangerously if not fatally wounded. Walter Barnes, of Van Buren, Ark., was slightly injured. Special Officers Helmick and Dickinson, of the Missouri Pacific, were on the train, also United States Deputy Marshals Brunner and Casaver, but they were covered by Winchester's in the hands of the bandits before they had time to make a move. Fully 200 shots were fired, and the cars were riddled. The mail car was not molested. The loss to the express company will not exceed $500.

BLOODHOUNDS.

They Are Put on the Track of South Carolina Murderers.

Orangeburg, S. C., Oct. 22.—The State bloodhounds were put on the track of the murderers of Robert C. Opea, the County Treasurer killed near here. They tracked the fugitives to where they had evidently taken a rowboat and gone down the Edisto River. Five negroes, it is reported, have been arrested on evidence not heard at the coroner's inquest and that they have all been lynched. The amount of money missing will hardly exceed $75. Circumstances indicate that white men did the work. The murderers missed $550 in greenbacks. If captured the assassins will probably meet a fearful death without trial.

THE FALCON MISSING.

The Peary Expedition Steamer is Eighteen Days Overdue.

St. John's, N. F., Oct. 22.—Nothing has yet been heard from the Peary expedition steamer Falcon, which sailed from Philadelphia on October 3 for this port. The Allan liner Corean, which arrived here Saturday night from Philadelphia, saw nothing of the Falcon on her passage, nor any wreckage or indication of what has become of her. As the Falcon made the passage from St. John's to Philadelphia in seven days, she is now eleven days overdue.

MURDERER LAKE CAUGHT.

Albion, N. Y., Oct. 22.—William Lake, the murderer of Emma Hunt, was captured yesterday afternoon. He offered no resistance and was lodged in jail. A large crowd gathered, but there was no disorder. Lake acknowledged that he committed the crime, and said that after knocking the woman senseless he cut her throat and hacked her with a butcher knife. The murderer's real name is Fuller. He was born in Middleport, N. Y. He is worn out with his efforts to escape capture and from want of food.

TERRIBLE FLOOD IN CHINA.

San Francisco, Oct. 22.—News of heavy rains, followed by a terrible flood, in China was brought by the steamer Australia. The waters covered an area of the best agricultural land 150 miles long by from 10 to 30 miles wide. The loss was enormous. How great was the loss of life will never be known. Many were drowned, many killed by falling houses, and numbers perished in attempting to save their household effects.

ANARCHIST IN AMERICA.

Washington, Oct. 22.—Under the terms of an international agreement, the French Government has notified the State Department that seventy immigrants, known to be anarchists, are about to sail for America, and instructions have been sent to the police authorities throughout the country to be on the lookout for these undesirable visitors, whose names and descriptions are given but will not be made public.

ANOTHER TRAIN WRECKER ARRESTED.

Chicago, Oct. 22.—Information has been received of the arrest of Nathan G. Dixon, at Albion, Mich., on the charge of complicity in the wrecking of a Grand Trunk passenger train at Battle Creek July 18. He is the sixth man arrested for that crime and is a member of the American Railway Union.

CASSIUS M. CLAY SERIOUSLY ILL.

Ashland, Ky., Oct. 22.—Cassius M. Clay, Republican candidate for Governor last year, has been brought from Salyersville seriously ill from a bilious attack and typhoid fever. Mr. Clay will remain here until it is safe for him to continue his trip home.

HIS 114TH ANNIVERSARY.

Asbury Park, N. J., Oct. 22.—Randolph Jones, a colored man, known commonly as Uncle Randall, living in this township, will celebrate the one hundred and fourteenth anniversary of his birthday early in November. He shook hands with Washington.

NEW BASEBALL LEAGUE.

A Gathering in Philadelphia Form the Nucleus.

Philadelphia, Oct. 22.—Baseball men representing six cities quietly gathered together in a room in the Cyprian Hotel, this city, Thursday, and after six hours' deliberation and discussion Frank F. Richter, editor of Sporting Life, who acted as spokesman for the party, announced the formation of the American Association of Baseball Clubs with a circuit made up thus far of Philadelphia, New York, Brooklyn and Washington in the East and Chicago, Pittsburg and Milwaukee in the West. The eighth club is to be located in St. Louis, Detroit, Columbus or Buffalo, with chances favoring the latter.

PEACE OVERTURES.

The London Daily News Publishes a Semi-Official Statement.

London, Oct. 22.—The Daily News publishes this semi-official statement: A day or two after the last Cabinet Council, China informed Great Britain that she proposed to negotiate for peace on certain terms. Great Britain made overtures to the powers on a new basis of negotiation. Japanese did not reply definitely, but has not rejected the proposals. The majority of the powers are in accord with Great Britain and there is a likelihood that the others will assent.

GOV. STONE GOT ONE OF THE FIRST PRIZES.

Jackson, Miss., Oct. 22.—The Post-Office Department has a so-called investment company, of this city, a lottery. William Henry, Adjutant-General of the State, is President of the concern, and it has been doing a thriving business for six months. Gov. Stone was one of the first to draw a prize, about $250. He had paid in less than $10, and the story of his good fortune was heralded through the papers to the great advantage of the company. The Postmaster here is instructed to return all letters containing money to the writers.

BUSINESS PICKING UP.

Middletown, N. Y., Oct. 22.—The silk mills in this city are running at their full capacity. The new Hartley silk mill has started with a boom that is surprising. The ribbon factory of Selmer & Co. has enjoyed a very successful season, and is running at its full capacity. The Columbia print works, where only dyeing and printing of silks is done, has more than it can do.

Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 22.—The new car wheel works which have been building here for several months, began operations Thursday.

SHOT HER BETRAYER.

New York, Oct. 22.—Donatto Robato, an Italian bootblack, aged twenty-four years, was shot and probably fatally injured on One Hundred and Twenty-fifth street Thursday by his sister-in-law, Mary Robato, aged twenty-three. She said that the victim was her husband's brother, and that after being criminally intimate with her he had told his brother that she was not true to him. When her husband accused her she thus got revenge.

SHE MARRIED FOR SPITE.

Pittsburg, Oct. 22.—Suit has been brought for desertion and non-support by Mrs. Elmer L. White against her husband of this city. Mrs. White is about twenty-five years old, a little above medium height, and has an oval face. She said Thursday: "He married me for my money, and I married him for spite, and we have been leading a cat-and-dog life ever since." Mrs. White's people are wealthy.

TWO MORE TRAMPING WAGER WINNERS.

Pittsburg, Pa., Oct. 22.—Samuel F. Jennings and Leon C. Tinker, of Wayland, N. Y., passed through Pittsburg Thursday on their way from Rochester, N. Y., to Tallahassee, Fla., on a wager. They started on October 1, and must reach Tallahassee on or before December 25. They arrived in Pittsburg two days ahead of time.

THEY HOLD COL. COIT RESPONSIBLE.

Washington Court House, O., Oct. 22.—Intense indignation prevails here against Sheriff Cook and Col. Coit. Gov. McKinley will be asked to dismiss Col. from the National Guard, as the people here hold him responsible for the killing and wounding of the people.

LAUGHED HERSELF TO DEATH.

New York, Oct. 22.—Elizabeth Cartney, aged thirty-five years and employed in a hat factory in Brooklyn, made a humorous observation to a shopmate and set to laughing. She laughed for five minutes and then fell from the seat dead.

CHUNG YON TUNG GONE TO CHINESE HEAVEN.

Washington, Oct. 22.—Chung Yon Tung, the well-known Chinaman, died here in great agony after eating toadstools which he had gathered, supposing them to be mushrooms. The deceased was well educated and popular in diplomatic circles.

CHAIRMAN H. E. RAYMOND RESIGNS.

New York, Oct. 22.—Chairman Howard E. Raymond, of the Racing Board of the League of American Wheelmen, has resigned his office on the board to accept the vice-presidency of a Chicago cycle firm.

CHARLES R. DOUGLASS.

This man has been depending on his father ever since he was born. He writes to a paper in this city that the BEE has been in several libel suits, etc., and he has humiliated himself.

Charles R. Douglass, the removed ex-consul to San Domingo, is known to be on the outs with every public man of note. He has seen fit to attack every man of note whom he thought was opposed to his father. He is a man who has been opposed to every person who is of a light complexion and one of the prime movers in inaugurating the color line in this city.

He will be discussed in full in the next issue of the BEE and his demagoguery fully laid before the people of this city.

He will be told in full about the Downing matter and why he was removed from the San Domingo consulship.

He has been on his knees and appealed to the editor of this paper not to expose his attacks on public men.

He was a candidate for the trusteeship of the public schools and made his campaign on the color line.

A SHAME.

(From the Kansas City Messenger.)

A few days ago Miss Anna H. Jones of the Lincoln High School, this city, received a call to be one of the faculty of the Washington, D. C., High School, at a salary much larger than she gets here. As the call comes when Miss Jones has perfected her arrangements here, we do not know whether she will accept it or not, but her going would certainly be a loss to the Kansas City High School, as Miss Jones is better equipped by education and experience than any teacher we have had, or would be able to induce to come. Though a collegiate, being an alumnus of Michigan University, she has never ceased to study and is remarkably well read. However, she is assuming as if her attainments were not of a superior order, and does not keep herself on the unapproachable pinnacle that most well-educated people mount. We extend our hearty congratulations to Miss Jones for the honor conferred on her in being called to such a school.

If there ever was a piece of imposition practiced on the people of this city it is the importation of Miss Anna H. Jones, of the Lincoln High School of Kansas City, Mo., to the High School of this city. The people of this city will not tolerate it.

Where are all of the competent lady teachers in this city? What does this mean? A colored trustee in the county puts a white teacher in the colored public schools, and another imports an outsider to this city and places her in the High School over competent and deserving home talent.

THE BEE WOULD LIKE TO KNOW

If Charles R. Douglass would like to be white.

If his removal from the Santo Domingo consulship was not a matter of necessity.

What was the matter with his accounts.

If the Freedman's Bank was ever paid that borrowed money.

Can C. R. Douglass inform the public if he belonged to the regiment that was driven from the field on account of cowardice.

If he wants an opportunity to answer a charge.

SERGEANT DALEY.

In the police court on Tuesday, in the manufactured case against Mrs. McDonald, Judge Miller took occasion to give Sergeant Daley a severe lecture for the manner in which he manufactures evidence to make out a whiskey case. If Judge Miller would only send one-half of the whiskey pimps and informers to jail he will be doing a public benefit.

If the Commissioners don't remove Sergeant Daley immediately the city of Washington as well as the police force will be disgraced.

There should be a law against officers trying to make people violate the law to enable them to make cases.

Charles R. Douglass shall have an opportunity to keep his hands in.

The editor of the Chicago Free Speech reminds the BEE of one of Barnum's Australian children. He is kicking himself to death because Miss Ida B. Wells is getting a little national reputation.

Next month will decide the fate of both political parties in this country.

Mr. Cleveland has returned to the city and it is expected that he will make the wool fly.

Charles R. Douglass, in the Colored American this week, fails to answer the editorial in the BEE.

A little unwritten history will no doubt enlighten Mr. Douglass of past events. The benefactor will be on the BEE's part.

The editor of the Colored American is kicking himself to death. He is doing now what he should have done long ago.

BAD METHODS DENOUNCED.

JUDGE MILLER ON MANUFACTURED TESTIMONY—THE COURT DISPLEASED.

One of the most diabolical cases ever tried in the police court was the charge against Mrs. Ellen McDonald, the proprietress of a reputable saloon in South Washington. The case was manufactured by Sergeant Daley. The witnesses were Eliza Grant, Belle Scott and a man, all of whom have served some time in the workhouse.

Lawyer Shillington represented the defense. After the witnesses for the prosecution had testified, Judge Miller and James Pugh, esq., the district attorney, became disgusted. District Attorney Pugh, who is always fair and just in his prosecution, said that he had nothing to say and was glad that the court took a view of the case in the manner that he did.

Judge Miller said that he would not allow such witnesses to testify against reputable citizens.

The testimony was that Sergeant Daley had given one of these women 25 cents to purchase whiskey from any saloon that was doing Sunday business. A bootblack, from the testimony, sold these women whiskey and gin, but from whom this bootblack purchased the liquor these women could not tell, but the impression that they wanted to make to the court and jury was that they bought it at the place of Mrs. McDonald.

Sergeant Daley was not present, hence Officer Duval had to prosecute the case for Sergeant Daley, and he was very fair and just in his testimony, and the district attorney informed the court that Officer McDonald had nothing to do with the prosecution on such manufactured testimony.

Judge Miller, after having heard the evidence, became so disgusted that he gave a severe lecture to officers who would be guilty of prosecuting a case like the one he had before him.

Judge Miller said that he is not calling any one's name, but he didn't propose to allow the court over which he presided to be used for any such purposes.

If a responsible officer brought a case in court, an officer who could be believed on oath and whose testimony could be believed, he would allow the case to be tried.

The methods that Sergeant Daley resort to to bring cases in court is a mockery on justice and a disgrace to this community. This is what the BEE thinks. While Judge Miller didn't say this, those who have from time to time heard the testimony of Sergeant Daley's witnesses, would come to the same conclusions that the BEE comes to. The District Commissioners are doing the wrong thing in endorsing Sergeant Daley in this method of making cases. He should be removed from the police force at once.

Commissioner Truesdell is in error in placing so much credence in Sergeant Daley's tales of woe.

THE EDITOR'S BLACK FRIDAY.

THE FORMS "PIED" AND HIS HORSE KILLED.

It is an old but a true story, that trouble never comes single-handed. Friday morning while the forms were being conveyed to the press room the first and fourth pages were "piet," notwithstanding the BEE made its usual appearance on Saturday.

Leaving the newspaper office and arriving at the law office 402 5th street N. W., while the editor was in court attending to a law case the horse of Mr. John Miller ran away and ran into the editor's horse which got frightened and ran away in the direction of Louisiana avenue and 7th street and struck a tree and burst one of his blood vessels and died within two hours. The harness and carriage were completely knocked out of sight. The editors lost accounts to $265—too much for these hard times. This was the editor's black Friday.

The accidents for the day were not completed until the editor's return to the newspaper office where he broke his watch chain.

IT MAKES NO DIFFERENCE.

A correspondent writes to the BEE this week and says that Mrs. Hawthorn's husband died in Jersey City, N. J., some three years ago and that she is not a married woman. That may be all true enough, but Mrs. Hawthorn's husband was living when she was appointed in the public schools. The idea that the BEE's correspondent wants to convey is that Mrs. Hawthorn had a living husband at the time of her appointment and if he died three years ago it does change the position of "Veritas" in the BEE. "Veritas" favors the employment of married women but he fails to show it is that some trustees can appoint married women and some others cannot.

Mr. E. E. Cooper who is now very active in his criticisms of the recorder of Deeds may be relieved of his burden in a few days. He will be given an opportunity to defend the man who signs himself "Observer." Perhaps Mr. Cooper is of the opinion that Mr. Taylor will send for him.

BREAD THROWN IN THE WATER WILL BE FOUND AFTER MANY DAYS.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 25, 1894.

Editor of the BEE:

Sir: I have long intended to write you of my admiration of you for your most gallant struggle for your advocacy of our race. We have long needed a man of your scholarly attainments and brilliant mind to depict to the public the manner in which our colored brethren are treated. Your scintillating wit, your dry humor, and your sad portrayal of the wrongs which are meted out to our brethren, appeals to me, as it does to all, in a forcible manner.

Keep up the good work, and when the sands of your life have run, when your body has been consigned to the cold, cold ground, and thy spirit takes its flight to thy Creator to reward thee for thy noble efforts, the public can indeed say with truth, "The good die young."

Like the Rock of Gibraltar, you have stood while the missiles of opinion of disconcerted enemies floated around thy hallowed head; standing like a lighthouse in times of storm, when great public questions agitated the public mind.

Respectfully,

A Reader and Subscriber

E. E. COOPER.

HIS DUPLICITY AND DECEPTION.

Editor of the BEE:

Permit one of your admirers a small space in your paper for the purpose of asking Mr. E. E. Cooper, the editor of the Colored American, a few questions. 1st. Will the editor of the American explain to the public why he at this late date attacks Mr. Taylor?

2d. Did not Mr. Taylor pay a promissory note for him to the amount of 26 dollars?

3d. Has not Mr. Cooper been paid for all he has done for Mr. Taylor?

Now, Mr. Editor, I am of the opinion that Mr. Cooper should close his mouth. He was continually after Mr. Taylor for money, and on one occasion called on the Recorder and asked him to lend him enough money to get out his paper. Mr. Taylor put his hands in his pocket and loaned him the money.

Although Mr. Taylor has paid him in cash all the money he owed him, his next demand on Taylor was for a place for his cousin; this Mr. Taylor refused to give him.

He now criticizes the Recorder and says to the public through his paper that Taylor is untrue to his friends. Has he been untrue to Cooper? No. He has paid him all that he ever owed him.

One Who Knows.

COLORADO VOTERS OF NEW JERSEY.

To the Colored Voters of the State of New Jersey:

Your State Committee, appointed by the State Convention at Trenton, September 12, 1892, and organized at Newark October 6, 1892, congratulates you upon the brilliant prospect of Republican victory, and your active, intelligent interest and participation in the efforts for its consummation.

We endorse the Republican Congressional nominees, and urge that every effort be used for their election, to the end that the vicious tariff legislation of the Democratic party may be repealed, industrial prosperity again revived, and a free ballot and a fair count secured to every citizen of the Republic, regardless of color, creed, or political proclivities.

We endorse the Republican Congressional nominees through the State, and urge that you give them earnest, energetic, loyal support; thus assuring the election of the Republican legislature and the return to the United States Senate of the splendid abilities, and broad statesmanship of the Honorable William J. Sewell.

We endorse the movement instituted by T. Thomas Fortune, and agitated by Miss Ida B. Wells, for the suppression of the dastardly crime of lynching, and urge that substantial financial support be given to Miss Wells in this propaganda of law and justice.

We deplore the issuance of promissory notes by irresponsible parties, claiming to speak for the colored people of New Jersey, and embarrassing the Republican party by demagogic demands for impossible and impracticable special legislation, before the battle is fought or the victory won.

We deplore the introduction into the State of the crude, separatist, "colored" political movement in vogue under the Reconstruction governments; and urge that in every case possible you endeavor to exert your influence and gratify your ambitions through the channels common to every member of the party.

And we especially urge that every voter of the race vote himself and endeavor to influence one other vote for the Republican candidates.

The drift of public sentiment plainly prefigures our success in November. There must be no lagging in our ranks. Keep step in the victorious march and each do a man's share toward the establishment of Triumphant Republicanism.

Met at Trenton, New Jersey, October 24, 1894.

ELIJAH JOHNSON, Esq., President.
A. T. WEBBER, M. D., Secretary.

At a recent meeting of the stockholders of the Capital Savings Bank the following officers and directors were elected: John Lynch, president; James R. Wilder, vice-president; James Storum, secretary; L. C. Bailey, treasurer; D. B. McCarty, cashier. Directors: John R. Lynch, L. C. Bailey, Wyatt Archer, J. H. Meriwether, W. S. Montgomery, James Storum, W. S. Lofton, James R. Wilder, John A. Pierre, J. T. Bradford, H. E. Baker, J. A. Johnson, A. W. Tancil, and Whitfield McKinley.

ANOTHER LOOT.

Robbers Hold Up a Train on the Texas and Pacific.

Fort Worth, Tex., Oct. 22.—The west-bound Texas and Pacific through-express train for California was robbed about noon Friday near Gordon, seventy miles west of here. The robbers secured about $20,000 from the Pacific Express Company, and but for their inability to open the safe of the Texas and Pacific Coal Company, containing $20,000 in gold, would have made a better haul. Four men did the work. They came upon a section gang pool stricken from the west. With about noon, covered them with Winchester and forced them to spread the rails and flag the oncoming train. The engineer and fireman were then lined up with the section gang and guarded, while two men entered the express car and covered the messenger.

He Will be the Candidate of Tammany Hall.

New York, Oct. 22.—The Executive Committee of Tammany Hall met at 4 P. M. Friday and immediately proceeded to nominate ex-Mayor Hugh J. Grant for the vacant place at the head of the ticket, his consent to such action having been previously obtained. A committee of nine members at once proceeded to the Union Square Hotel and notified Mr. Grant of his nomination. He accepted the honor, but intimated that his acceptance was on condition that he be allowed to make some changes in the remainder of the ticket.

Breckinridge's Appeal Dismissed.

Washington, Oct. 22.—On motion of Calderon Carlisle, counsel for Madeline Pollard, in her case against Col. Breckinridge, of Kentucky, the Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia has ordered the defendant's appeal struck from the docket. This ends the litigation as far as the courts of the District are concerned and leaves the plaintiff free to collect her judgment of $15,000 and costs from Col. Breckinridge when and how she can.

Signed "Almighty God."

New York, Oct. 22.—A crank entered the Clinton Place Bank on Astor Place Friday afternoon and demanded $1,000 from Paying Teller Hind. The check was signed "Almighty God." The teller told the man to wait until he could open the safe and get the money. When Hind's head was turned the man shot at him. The man was seized by employees of the bank after he had fired four shots at Hind. The crank's identity could not be ascertained.

Another Royal Marriage.

London, Oct. 22.—The Gazette Friday night printed an order in council by the Queen, dated October 15, consenting to the marriage of Prince Adolphus of Teck, eldest son of the Duke and Duchess of Teck, and brother of the Duchess of York, to Lady Margaret Grosvenor, the youngest daughter of the Duke of Westminster, probably the wealthiest nobleman in England. The engagement of the Prince and Lady Margaret was announced in July last.

Nine Tramps Kill Another.

Elmira, Oct. 22.—Ten tramps became engaged in a quarrel at South Waverly, Pa. Nine of them took the tenth, strung him up against a wall and shot him through the head, killing him. The tramps, who are believed to be foreigners, escaped. One stranger was arrested. He refuses to give his name, but says that he was an eye-witness to the shooting, and can identify the man who fired.

Big Gold Find in California.

San Francisco, Oct. 22.—Dispatches from San Bernardino say that a big strike has been made in the Calico mining district. There is gold in large quantities, and between twenty and thirty claims have been staked out. One claim shows gold in twenty places. The ledge runs $30 to $40, and some as high as $430.

Marchioness Wants a Divorce.

London, Oct. 22.—The Marchioness of Queensbury has lodged a petition for the nullification of her marriage. The present Marchioness is the second wife of the Marquis and was, prior to her marriage to him in November last, Miss Ethel Weedon. The Marquis was divorced from his first wife in 1837.

Raided the Bucket Shop.

New York, Oct. 22.—Inspector Williams raided the bucket shop of the Stearns Commission Company, in New street, with offices in the Edison building, and arrested nine men. This is the mining stock quotation company that is being investigated by the Lexow Committee.

Two of the Stamp Robbers Caught.

Washington, Oct. 22.—The chief of the Secret Service has been informed of the arrest in New York of Harry Lion Brown and George Harer, on the charge of being implicated in the robbery of postage stamps at the Bureau of Engraving and Printing.

Declined a Gift of $100,000.

Colon, Colombia, Oct. 22.—The widow of President Nunez has declined the proposed grant from the Republic of Colombia of the sum of $100,000 as a token of the country's appreciation of the services which her husband rendered to Colombia.

The End of Topolobampo.

Abilene, Kan., Oct. 22.—The end of the great Topolobampo colony is complete. The final scene is the suspension of its paper, the "Integral Co-operator." It is estimated that $1,000,000 has been sunk in the scheme.

It is a Lottery.

Jackson, Miss., Oct. 22.—The Post-Office Department has issued an order declaring that the Co-operative Loan and Investment Company of Mississippi is engaged in conducting a lottery.

Historian Friends Dead.

London, Oct. 22.—James Anthony Froude, LL. D., the celebrated religious writer and historian, died at 6:30 A. M. Saturday, aged seventy-six years.

A LIBERAL ORGAN OFFER.

That there has been a revolution in the manufacture of Organs and Pianos is evinced by the current offer of Cornish & Co., the well known manufacturers of Washington, N. J. For the next 60 days they offer to sell an organ for $42.50, which a short time ago would have been considered a desirable organ at $75.00. With this they offer terms of credit that are sure to meet with the approval of every fair-minded person. Cornish & Co. are the largest makers of Organs and Pianos in the world selling direct from the factory to the home. Since the conception of this great business, nearly thirty years ago, they have been fighting the method of selling instruments through agents and dealers, their plan being to give the enormous profits usually retained by the tradesman to the buyer. Their efforts to place first class instruments within the reach of all, at manufacturer's prices and the most liberal terms, deserves the highest commendation.
Every one who is contemplating the purchase of an Organ or Piano, should get the catalogue issued by this firm.
It illustrates and describes all the latest and best designs of Organs and Pianos with prices and special offers that are sure to prove profitable. They generally offer to send it free to all who write and mention the BEE.

FOR THE LADIES.

The lovely autumn capes are of plain cloth the kind called satin cloth with a very shiny surface and have quaint hoods lined with plaid silk; some of them are lined entirely with this material.

Covert cloth will be all the rage for smart street gowns; so will camels hair, which combined with velvet makes up lovely.

For evening wear, some lovely novelties, of open work plume can be seen.

Of course silk muslin will be far from discarded, and some of the loveliest imported gowns are made of this.

For every day wear, the taste has quite recently turned distinctively in favor of mohair, alpaca and lustre wool dress materials.

Plaid and Persian effects will be highly favored, the latter especially for dressed blouses and tea gowns.

Brocades with satin ground are the novelty for the season. These are seen in flower and leaf patterns so arranged as to form wide, indistinct stripes, between which are small detached flowers.

Louis XV taffetas and satins are among the best liked imported goods, and trimmed with silk muslin, make very picturesque costumes.

Dresden china effects, which show satin stripes and pompadour stripes alternating, are to be classified in the same family.

The latest novelty though, is the natte or basket weave effect, in all silk. This shows the weave so arranged as to produce the effect of a braided fabric.

The coats seen are mostly redingote style, some of them double-breasted.
A pretty one is of English Covert cloth of a grayish color, with wide redingote revers of brown silk velvet; deep cuffs of the same.

Although draped skirts are not much seen, it is generally predicted that they will creep slowly to the surface.

Sleeves continue to hold their size, and are very often made of an entirely distinct material from the dress.

Black velvet ribbon is very much used for the trimming of dress bodices and skirts of all kinds.

Scarfs in soft silks and satin are to be had ready made, and are worn simply knotted around the waist or cut in two and worn in the side seams of the waist so as to form a corset; the ends
after being tied together hang down slightly on the left side.

The gauze boa is an elegant novelty,
and is seen everywhere. Fur collarettes will still be the favorites for more severe weather.

For hats to come, the small toque with coronet brim will be the thing to wear with the tailor made gown. A great many of them come in braided felt; the crown and brim are then in two contrasting colors.

Several shapes are so constructed that they can be worn either back or front, and the trimming can be arranged accordingly.

Satin ribbon for the collar, belt or rosette is highly in vogue.

Spangles and spangled feathers, birds and wings will have as much favor as heretofore.

cal Association will be formally

RIDDLED THE MOB.

Soldiers in Ohio Try to Save a Negro Friend.

Washington Court House, O., Oct. 22.— William Dolby, colored, who a short time ago criminally assaulted Mrs.
Mary C. Boyd, aged fifty-five, at Parrots Station, near here, was captured at Delaware, O., and was sentenced to twenty years in the penitentiary.
An angry mob gathered about the jail,
and Sheriff Cook called to his assistance the local militia company. This action increased the fury against Dolby, and Gov. McKinley was appealed to for assistance, and troops from Columbus were sent here Wednesday morning, Col. Colt in command.

The mob surrounded the jail and Court House, and attempted to take Dolby from the officers. While bringing him from the jail Henry Kirk, the brother-in-law of the assaulted woman, was knocked down the steps and badly bruised.

The mob grew rapidly in numbers and desperation. Col. Colt made a speech, asking the crowd to disperse, but it was received with jeers. The mob kept Dolby and his guards prisoners in the Court House until 6 P. M.
and then made an attack. The militia repelled them without firing at first, but at 6:45 the south door was forced open. The detachment of the guards finally fired on the attacking party, though none were hurt, but a dozen or more persons in the street were struck,
two killed outright and four more fatally wounded, one having since died.

Killed—Smith Welsh, aged eighteen,
shot through the head; Jesse Judy, aged twenty-five, shot through the heart; G. W. Johnson, of Giles Station, Butler County, shot through the stomach.

Wounded—William Sauer, aged thirty-five, shot in abdomen; Theodore Ammerman, aged twenty-two, right thigh shot; Dan Purrott, aged thirty, cousin of the outraged woman, shot in the right foot; Frank Niederhaus, aged sixty-five, shot in left leg.

It is believed that many others are wounded, and a diligent search is in progress to find them.

AN ILL-FATED STRUCTURE.

Three More Men Hurt on the Louisville and Jefferson Bridge.

Louisville, Oct. 22.—The ill-fated new Louisville and Jeffersonville bridge was the scene of another accident Wednesday afternoon. Three men were hurt, probably fatally. The accident was caused by the falling apart of a part of the false work under the fourth span, which had just been completed and locked. The men were engaged in removing the false work on the first division of the structure. The top timbers had nearly all been removed and the remainder of the section collapsed. Harry Williams, Thomas Prossy and Lee Milhouse were injured.

ILLICIT WHISKEY AND MONEY.

United States Officers Believe They Have Clues.

Albia, Ia., Oct. 22.—The United States revenue officials searching for the assassins of Deputy Marshal Wray have discovered traces of a gang of counterfeiters. The developments lead the officers to believe there is an organized gang of moonshiners and counterfeiters who hide in abandoned mines in the wild regions of this and Wapello counties. It is thought that Bill Cramer, a noted desperado, under indictment for murder, is at the head of the gang and that when the officers make their man hunt it will disclose all kinds of illicit stills and counterfeiters.

REAL WAR ON THE LORDS.

The British Government Will End Their Obstruction Tactics.

London, Oct. 22.—Shaw Lefevre,
President of the Local Government Board, said in a Liberal meeting in Bradford Thursday that the Government were determined to end the obstruction tactics of the Lords, who had ceased to be an independent part of the legislature, and had become merely a section of the Tory caucus.
The country might expect a statement on this subject from the Prime Minister in a few days.

Killed Himself.

Buffalo, Oct. 22.—Joseph Harding, a brakeman on the Erie road, shot and killed himself Wednesday afternoon because the woman with whom he was living was about to desert him. Harding left a wife and child two years ago and took up with a woman named Anne Foley. They quarrelled frequently and Tuesday night the woman left the house. She returned with a policeman to get her clothing and Harding shot himself.

Put Poison in the Well.

Walnut Ridge, Ark., Oct. 22.—In Sharp County Sheriff Hutchinson arrested Dr. Nixon, Dr. McCabe and Mrs. McCabe, all of Callamine, on the charge of attempting to poison Dr. A.
D. Barr and his family by placing poison in a cistern on the latter's premises. There was bad blood between the families.

Limiting the Production.

Louisville, Oct. 22.—At the meeting of Kentucky distillers a resolution was adopted providing that the production during the coming year shall be limited to 15,000,000 gallons. The distillers present representing every large distillery in the State, were unanimous for the proposition.

To Rescue Arctic Explorers.

London, Oct. 22.—Capt. Batty will lead a small expedition to the Arctic Ocean to seek his brother and his companion, Hyland, both naturalists, who landed on the island of Kogevik in June last and have not since been heard from.

Shot Four Times.

Providence, R. I., Oct. 22.—John Semmonian, an Armenian, was shot
four times by Chabourn Changsonian, a Turk, Wednesday afternoon. Sem-monian is dying in the hospital and his assailant is under arrest. The men were enemies.

Verdict of Not Guilty.

Nashville, Tenn., Oct. 22.—The jury in the case of Charles Hardin, charged with the embezzlement of $35,000 from the Adams Express Company, has returned a verdict of not guilty.

WILBORN'S COMPOUND OF
PURE COD LIVER OIL
AND PHOSPHATES OF LIME, SODA, IRON.

The truly wonderful effect produced by Dr. Alexander's Compound of Pure Cod Liver Oil and Phosphates renders it beyond doubt the most valuable preparation of its kind known to-day.
Consumption, coughs, colds, asthma, debility, weakness, and all scrofulous humors disappear as if by magic. It is almost as palatable as cream, and can be taken with pleasure by delicate persons or children, who, after using it, become very fond of it.
It assimilates with the food, increases the flesh and

A ROMANTIC YARN.

Immense of a Poor House Confirms a Queer Tale.

St. Joseph, Mo., Oct. 2.—James Morton, aged ninety, an inmate of the poor farm at Kingston, confirms the story of Mrs. Pierce, of Rock Springs, Wyo., that she is the daughter of Jay Gould. He says he adopted the child when she was six years old. He then resided at St. Thomas, Canada.

Canada Deep in Debt.

New York, Oct. 2.—A special from Ottawa says: When the Government balanced accounts for the fiscal year just closed a deficit of nearly $2,000,000 was found in the treasury. It has now become apparent that the revenue is going to fall a long way short of expenditures, and the Minister of Finance, George Foster, has decided to call for England on Saturday to negotiate a new Dominion loan. During the year over $4,000,000 has been added to the national debt. Taxation through the custom house has been increased 64 per cent. since the present Government came into power, while the population shows an increase of only 21 per cent.

Remnant of a Wreck Recovered.

London, Oct. 2.—The Daily Graphic says the wreck of the Russian ironclad Rousalka, which was lost in the Baltic Sea last year, was found on September 19 south of the Island of Wasteroken, Finland. The wreck lies in twenty fathoms of water. A diver who went down and examined the hull reports he found a great hole in the stern. Appearances indicate that the Rousalka struck a reef and stove her hull, and then slid off the reef into deep water. She had on board 12 officers and 198 men. A wrecking crew has begun operations with a view of raising the vessel, but little hopes are entertained that it will succeed.

Connecticut Elections.

New Haven, Oct. 2.—Returns from 100 towns show gains for the Republicans in the town elections yesterday. In Waterbury the A. P. A. movement aroused the Catholics, who succeeded in electing an entire school board of Catholics. In New Britain the no license vote of one year ago is reversed. In almost all the towns where the A. P. A. made a fight it met with defeat. Meriden, Norwich, Middletown and New Milford were captured by the Republicans, but New London elected a Democratic Mayor, displacing a Republican. Republicans captured all the other offices in New London.

Working on the Canal Again.

New York, Oct. 2.—A special from Colon, Colombia, says: Work on the canal was resumed yesterday with picks and spades at Culebra Hill, eleven miles from the Pacific Ocean and thirty-six from the Atlantic. Twelve hundred men are required, and their wages will be from $1 to $2 a day.
